Kagiwada Sunday, Moderator's Message

Yellow Disprivilege

In Charlottesville, Virginia, on Friday, August 11, 2017, before they clashed with counter-demonstrators, white supremacists marched on the grounds of the University of Virginia, shouting, “Blood and Soil!” “Jews will not replace us!” “You will not replace us!” In doing so, they expressed their hatred and their fear of losing privileges associated with being white. The marchers didn’t care that the white privilege they enjoyed came at cost: the disprivilege suffered by Jews and non-whites. Disprivilege suffered by Jews and non-whites such as Native Americans, African Americans, and Hispanics are well known. Not as well known, perhaps, is that suffered by Asian Americans.

Most Americans, for example, do not know that the Naturalization Act of 1790 disprivileged Asians by excluding them from becoming naturalized citizens. Initially, this Act granted the right of naturalization to whites only; after the Civil War, however, the right was also extended to people of African descent and Native Americans—but not to Asians. Then the Immigration Act of 1924 disprivileged Asians outright by barring them from immigrating to the U.S., on the grounds that immigration would be allowed only to those who could become naturalized in America. In 1943, during World War II, when China was fighting as an American ally, Congress made an exception to the law, for 105 Chinese each year. Later in the 1940s, similar exceptions were made for Indians and Filipinos.

Then the Immigration Act of 1952 finally annulled race as a factor in determining the eligibility of naturalization and immigration. Even so, because of a quota system based on national origins, the number of Asians that could immigrate was extremely limited. It was only with the passage of the Immigration Act of 1965, which repealed the national origins system, that the disprivileges inflicted on Asians, with respect to immigration, began to be dismantled.

1965 was only 52 years ago—not a long time ago in the larger scheme of things—and I didn’t even mention Yellow Peril or the Chinese Exclusion Acts or the internment of Japanese Americans during World War II. Who perpetrated these unjust deeds, to privilege whom, to displace whom?

The national laws targeting Asians inevitably disprivileged Asians in churches, as well, including those in the Disciples, causing, for example, the Chinese Christian Church in Portland, Oregon, to close its doors in 1924. It was in the late 1970s that American Asian Disciples (the antecedent of NAPAD) came into being, certainly not to replace white Disciples, but to ensure that Pacific-Islander/Asian Disciples would no longer be subjected to disprivileges, to ensure that they would enjoy and partake in the same kind of rights and responsibilities as all other Disciples. It was to secure those rights and responsibilities that our founding leaders strived so tirelessly: Harold Johnson (1921–2014), David Kagiwada (1929–1985), and Soongook Choi (1933–2002).

A Disciples Affirmation of Faith

AS MEMBERS OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH,

We confess that Jesus is the

Christ, the Son of the living
God, and proclaim him Lord and Savior of the world.

In Christ's name and by his grace
we accept our mission of witness and service to all people.

We rejoice in God,
maker of heaven and earth, and in the covenant of love which binds us to God and one another.

Through baptism into Christ
we enter into newness of life and are made one with the whole people of God. In the communion of the Holy Spirit we are joined together in discipleship and in obedience to Christ.

At the table of the Lord
we celebrate with thanksgiving the saving acts and presence of Christ.

Within the universal church we receive the gift of ministry and the light of scripture.

In the bonds of Christian faith
we yield ourselves to God that we may serve the One whose kingdom has no end
Blessing, glory and honor
be to God forever. Amen.

DAVID TAMOTSU KAGIWADA

A Compassionate Healer

Responding to a request from a newly established church of Japanese immigrants in Los Angeles, the Disciples-sponsored Margaret K. Long School (Joshi Sei Gakuin) in Tokyo sent one of its graduates to become director of Christian education. After a few years, she married one of the church founders. Their first son, David, was born on September 9, 1929.

When David was in junior high school, World War II broke out and anti-Japanese hostility exploded. David, along with his parents, was taken by force to a concentration camp in Arizona where people of Japanese heritage were confined without due process. Young David felt the grave injustice of such treatment by the government. After all, he had been born in the United States and he was an American citizen. However, even in this hostile place, surrounded by barbed wire fences and armed guard towers, he found meaning in the church activities which were developed by the Christians interned there.

After leaving the concentration camp, David became increasingly conscious of the wider implications of the wrong which had been directed at Japanese Americans. He sought ways to commit his life toward fighting injustice, not only for people of Japanese heritage, but for all peoples. During his college years, David associated with peoples of many different races and nationalities. He made a commitment to be a reconciler of antagonistic people, whoever they might be.

He first thought he could do this as a social worker, but after considerable soul searching, he came to the realization that he wanted his Christian faith to be a central part of his life's work and decided to go to seminary. David graduated from the University of Chicago School of Divinity and was ordained in what is now the Illinois-Wisconsin Region of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). In his ordination statement, he said, "I want to bear witness to the goodness which finds its source in the God of our Lord Jesus Christ. It is a ministry which involves judgment as well as healing. It is to this task that I commit my energies, talents, vision, and life."

By drawing upon his own ethnic experiences, David effectively communicated the need for Christians to work actively toward justice for all peoples. He encouraged compassionate action and better understanding among all communities of people, but a special mission for him was to persuade Asians who were historically antagonistic to come together in the name of Christ the Reconciler. He also labored to help the Disciples denomination recognize and appreciate the gifts that Asian Americans offered to the church. He organized and became the first convener of the American Asian Disciples (AAD, now. NAPAD - North American Pacific/Asian Disciples).

Another important aspect of David's ministry was his support and advocacy for women. With his active support, at least ten women entered the ordained ministry during his six years at Crestview Christian Church in Indianapolis.

David died on July 10, 1985 while serving as senior pastor of Crestview Christian Church. For David, there can be no better fitting memorial than the scholarship fund established to assist in preparing North American Pacific/Asian Disciples for pastoral leadership.

SUNDAY (9/10)

- For Sunday school classes and small groups, the following topics may be discussed.
(주일 성경공부 반이나 소그룹 모임에서 다음의 주제들을 놓고 토의할 수 있음)
 - Race relations in North America: Christian responsibility for racial integration and conflict (racially motivated hate crime, anti-immigration hostility, etc.) 북 미주의 인종 관계: 인종 화합과 인종 불화에 대한 성도들의 책임은 무엇인가? 특히 인종 차별, 인종 증오, 반 이민 감정 등에 어떻게 대처해야 하나?
 - Biblical understanding of diversity, inter-racial integrity, and multi-culturalism. 다양성, 인종 화합, 다문화 사회를 위한 성경적 이해를 생각해 보자.

Scripture selections (참조할 성경):
Genesis(창) 12:1-9; Micah (미가)4:3-8; 6:6-8; Isaiah (사) 11:6-9, 58:6-11.
Luke (눅) 4:14-22; Matthew (마)8:5-12, 25:31-46; 1 Corinthians (고전) 12:12-27;
Ephesus (엡) 2:11-22
<Matthew (마태) 7:15-20, John (요한) 15:1-11>
 - Talk about how to support, promote, and participate in NAPAD ministries (new church start, leadership development, scholarships, etc.) NAPAD 목회에 적극 참여하며, 후원하며, 장려할 수 있는 길(개척교회, 인재양성, 장학금 후원 등)을 검토하고 추진 하도록 한다.
 - Understanding of God’s plan (providence) for our church that “three of the four founding fathers” of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) are adult immigrants. (Thomas and Alexander Campbell, and Walter Scott) 교단(창립)을 위한 하나님의 특별 계획(섭리) 이 무엇일까? (특히 창립의 주역 4 명 중 3 명이 이민자들이라는 사실이 무엇을 말해 주는가?)
- Other activities suggested (especially for non-NAPAD congregations and groups) 아시아 교회가 아닌 회중이나 구역을 위한 제안.
 - Pulpit exchange with NAPAD ministers
 - Invite NAPAD members to your church (Sunday school classes & worship services) and listen to them about their life experiences in America.
 - Preach on topics, such as “multi-cultural society,” “the gifts from the East,” “anti-racist and pre-reconciling church,” “2020 Vision of Disciples.”
 - Have a moment of prayer for NAPAD ministries.
 - Promote scholarship funds (D. Kagiwada and S. Choi)

MONDAY (9/11)

- Spend time as a family talking about American-Asian and Pacific Islanders history in the United States. What do you know about this history? What are your biggest questions? What would you like to learn more about? 가족이 함께 모여 미국에 사는 아시아인들의 (이민) 역사를 이야기한다. 이민 역사를 얼마나 알고 있는가? 가장 큰 의문은 무엇인가? 더 알고 싶은 것은 무엇인가?
- Take some time to reflect on the scripture, Romans 2:9-11: “Tribulation and anguish, on every soul of man who does evil, of the Jew first and also of the Greek; but glory, honor, and peace to everyone who works what is good, to the Jew first and also to the Greek. For there is no partiality with God.” As you reflect, consider this passage in relation to the life of Asian and Pacific Islanders in America. 로마서 2:9-11 을 읽고 명상한 후 느낀 바를 서로 나눈다: “악을 행하는 각 사람의 영에게 환난과 곤고가 있으리니 첫째는 유대인에게요 또한 헬라인에게며 선을 행하는 각 사람에게는 영광과 존귀와 평강이 있으리니 첫째는 유대인에게요 또한 헬라인에게라. 이는 하나님께서 외모로 사람을 취하지 아니하심이니라.” 이 성경 말씀에 비추어 미국에 이민와서 살고 있는 아시아인 그리고 태평양계 사람들이 겪는 인종관계의 어려움을 생각해 본다.

TUESDAY (9/12)

- With a group of friends/or as family, set aside some time to write a letter to someone who lives in Asia or in the Pacific Islands. What do you want to know about their lives? What similarities are there between the U.S. and places in Asia or the Pacific Islands? What more would you like to learn? 친구들끼리 또는 가족끼리 모여, 아시아나 태평양 군도에 살고 있는 친지들에게 편지를 쓴다. 그들의 생활에 대해 알고 싶은 것이 무엇인가? 그들과 미국에 있는 우리가 유사한 점이 무엇일까? 더 배우고 싶은 것은 무엇인가?
- Share Asian and Pacific Islanders cultural foods with family/or friends. Begin discussions around what you are eating and the thoughts or memories that the food brings. 다른 민족인들과 아시아/태평양식 음식을 나누도록 한다. 식사하는 동안 식탁을 돌아가면서 지금 먹고 있는 음식이 무엇이며, 그 음식과 연관된 추억들을 서로 교환하도록 한다.

WEDNESDAY (9/13)

- Choose a country in Asia or the Pacific Islands and reflect on its people and current status in the world. What can you pray for? What areas do these communities need support? 아시아나 태평양 군도에 있는 나라 하나를 택하여 거기 사는 사람들에 관해 생각해 보고 현재 그들이 처해있는 (정치/경제적) 상황을 알아본다. 그들을 위해 기도해야 할 일들이 무엇일까? 그들이 필요로 하는 것들은 무엇일까?
- Take some time to reflect on the scripture, Romans 12:5. “So we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another.” As you reflect, consider this passage in relation to cultural unity and reconciliation. How can we strive to be “one body in Christ?” 로마서 12:5 를 읽고 음미해 보자: "이와 같이 우리 많은 사람이 그리스도 안에서 한 몸이 되어 서로 지체가 되었느니라." 이 성경 말씀을 문화적 단합과 화해에 관련하여 생각해 볼 것. 우리가 어떻게 "그리스도 안에서 한 몸 됨"을 이룰 수 있을까?

THURSDAY (9/14)

- Form a “Chain of Prayer” in your church community to pray for NAPAD ministries. 교회 안에 "기도 고리"를 조직하여 일주간 동안 쉬지 않고 NAPAD 교회들과 목회를 위하여 기도 할 것
- Use this day to celebrate the ministries of NAPAD in the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). Research more about NAPAD on the website at www.napad.net, 크리스천 교회 (제자회)내에서 가지는 우리 NAPAD 사역을 기념 축하하며 NAPAD website 를 열어보고 더 깊은 이해를 갖도록 하자: www.napad.net

- Find out if there is a NAPAD church in your community. Contact a leader in that church and discuss possible activities the two congregations can share in the future. Discuss possible plans to help each other in congregational vitality, community service, and evangelism. What stories are there that you can share about your church? Ask about the history and stories of the NAPAD congregation. 우리 주위에는 어떤 NAPAD 교회가 있는지 알아보자. 주위의 NAPAD 교회들이 연합하여 할 수 있는 행사들을 교회 지도자들과 상의해 보자. 인근 NAPAD 교회들이 합동으로 교회성장, 사회봉사, 전도활동을 펴 나갈 수 있는 길을 함께 모색해 본다. 소속 교회의 자랑스러운 점들은 무엇인가? NAPAD 교회들의 역사와 전통들을 들어보자.

FRIDAY (9/15)

- With a group of friends/or family, discuss the differences in Asian/and Pacific Island cultures compared to American culture. Discuss how we can use these differences to strengthen our community, congregation, and relationships. How do these differences relate to your church? If a guest visited your church and did not fit in, how would the congregation react? Discuss what it means to “Bear Fruit” in this context. 친구들이나 가족끼리 모여 아시안/태평양 민족들의 다양한 문화를 생각해 보고 그것과 미국 문화를 비교해 보자. 이런 다양성을 어떻게 우리 사회와 교회와 대인관계에 적용할 수 있을까 토의해 보자. 우리 교회에 (문화/인종적으로) 낯선 사람이 방문했을 때, 우리 교인들은 어떻게 대우하는지 조사해 보자. 이러한 상황에서 “열매 맺는 삶”이란 무엇인지 생각해 보자.

SATURDAY (9/16)

- Remembering the gifts of this week, what changes can we make in our congregation, spiritual life, and actions to become a more open, inclusive, and affirming culture? This week, we focused on Asian/Pacific Island cultures. How can we incorporate these same changes to be “”Bearing Fruits” in our lives? 이번 주간의 행사들을 통하여 얻은 지혜를 가지고 어떻게 우리 교회와 신앙과 봉사활동에 있어 좀더 열린, 포용적인, 그리고 차별이 없는 풍토를 이루어 나갈 것인가? 우리는 한 주간 동안 아시안/태평양 군도의 문화를 생각해 보았다. 여기서 그칠 것이 아니고 우리의 매일생활 속에서 어떻게 하면 “열매 맺는 삶”의 정신을 실현시킬 것인가를 기도하며 결심하도록 하자.

1978: First consultation of Asian Disciples is held in Indianapolis, to foster consciousness among Asian Disciples and form a critical mass of people needed to build an Asian Disciples community. The gathered group names itself the Fellowship of Asian American Disciples (FAAD).

Corporate identity officially recognized

1979: Second consultation of Asian Disciples held. The group's name is changed to American Asian Disciples (AAD). Harold Johnson is named as the liaison between AAD and DHM. At the General Assembly in St. Louis, October 26–31, AAD is officially recognized as a denominational constituency.

1980: First AAD Convocation held in Indianapolis. David Kagiwada is elected first convener. The convocation is to be held biennially, alternating with the years of the General Assembly.

1985: AAD's booth set up for the first time at the General Assembly

2000: Korean Disciples Convocation (KDC) formed. Soongook Choi elected as Moderator.

Reenvisioning the corporate identity

2000: NAPAD Visioning Conference held at Indianapolis, participated by representatives from NAPAD, General Units, and regions (March 29-32). A 5-point Covenant created by the participants, authorizing a process leading to the restructure of NAPAD. The Covenant is endorsed by the NAPAD Convocation held at Christian Theological Seminary in Indianapolis, July 27-29. NAPAD Executive Council assumes the role of the Transition Team, consisting of three Task Committees and five Decision Committees, one of which is the Structure Committee.

2002: NAPAD Task Force and the Standing Committee on Renewal and Structural Reform of the Christian Church (DOC) submit a restructure proposal to the General Board. The proposal is vetoed by the Administrative Committee, which proffers an alternative that creates an American Asian Ministries Commission. NAPAD declines the proposal.

2003: Patricia (Cisa) Payuyo is elected First Vice-Moderator of the General Assembly

2005: Carolyn Ho is elected First Vice-Moderator of the General Assembly

2008: The General Board in April forms the Mission Alignment Coordinating Council (MACC).

NAPAD Scholarships

The David Tamotsu Kagiwada Memorial Scholarship was established in memory of the Rev. David Kagiwada. David was a native of Los Angeles and a second generation Disciple. His mother was a graduate of the Disciples-sponsored Margaret K. Long School (Joshi Sei Gakuin) in Tokyo, Japan.

During World War II, David's family was interned in a concentration camp in Arizona with other Americans of Japanese ancestry. The injustice he experienced made him keenly aware of the wider implications. Therefore, he sought to commit his life to fighting injustice, not only for people of Asian heritage, but for all people. David chose to be a reconciler of antagonistic people, whoever they might be. Because he wanted his Christian faith to be a central part of his life's work, he decided to enter the ministry. He graduated from the University of Chicago Divinity School and was ordained in the Illinois-Wisconsin Region of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). There were some focal points in his ministry: to reconcile and heal antagonism among all people; to support and be an advocate for racial/ethnic minorities and women; and to help the church recognize and appreciate the gifts of people of Asian heritage.

David faithfully served five congregations in California and Indiana. With his encouragement, at least 10 women entered ordained ministry during his six years as pastor of Crestview Christian Church in Indianapolis. He also persuaded historically antagonistic Asian people to gather together in the name of Christ, the Reconciler. David was the first Convener of the American Asian Disciples (now, North American Pacific/Asian Disciples).

The Kagiwada Scholarship is available to North American Pacific/Asian Disciples ministerial students enrolled (or accepted as an entering student) in an accredited graduate theological school or seminary.

The J. Soongook Choi Memorial Scholarship

The J. Soongook Choi Memorial Scholarship was established in memory of the Rev. Dr. J. Soongook Choi. Dr. Choi was born and raised in Japan, but went to Korea with the Student Volunteer Corps during the Korean War. Out of his painful experience in the conflict of inter- and intra-racial relations among Asian nations, he became a seeker for peace and justice in a world community of different peoples.

Dr. Choi's father was Confucian and his mother Buddhist, but he accepted Christ under the influence of his seventh-grade teacher. Because of his Christian faith, the teacher was persecuted - which included the removal of all his finger nails. This piqued Dr. Choi's curiosity and he was deeply moved. While his parents' religions did not give him a clue as to the hunger and thirst in him for peace and justice, Christianity did so much for him that he became a disciple of Jesus. Five years later, Dr. Choi, who was one of three who survived from the 34 student volunteers sent to the Korean War, made a commitment to be a minister of the gospel of Jesus.

Upon returning to Korea, Dr. Choi joined the Campbell-Stone movement (Christian Church - Independent). In 1959, he came to the United States for advanced theological education and earned several academic degrees: Master of Arts from Lincoln Christian Seminary (1962); Master of Divinity from Vanderbilt University Divinity School (1965); Doctor of Ministry from Notre Dame University Graduate Theological Foundation (1989). He was ordained in 1962 and served the Lord as local church pastor, hospital chaplain, professor and president of Seoul Christian University (in Korea), and member of the General Board of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ).

The J. Soongook Choi Scholarship Fund: $59,463.44 (Market Value as of 5/31/2017)

The life mission of Dr. Choi was:

"To serve my neighbors and give them the impression to love, to have peace, to practice forgiveness, to produce reconciliation is my way of serving God."
